

Carol Cowhey

Senior Associate

---

Tel: 215-587-1674

Fax: 215-587-1699

Email: ccowhey@christieyoung.com

Education:

1992 J.D. Villanova Law School

1986 B.A. Computer Science, Magna Cum Laude, LaSalle University

Ms. Cowhey joined the firm in April, 2015 and currently concentrates her practice on the defense of complex claims in the area of medical malpractice representing hospitals, physicians, nurses and other healthcare providers in matters filed within the Commonwealth. Additionally, she handles general liability claims within the hospital and university settings and has experience in the retail setting as well. She brings to the firm ten years of experience in the defense of healthcare providers and healthcare institutions. She has handled a wide range of matters involving all aspects of medicine including psychiatric medicine and matters both complex and catastrophic. She has worked closely with a prominent infertility practice providing legal and risk management services especially in the area of informed consent. She gained valuable experience in the professional liability arena defending attorneys specializing in patent law, and medical malpractice law as well as general practice attorneys.

Ms. Cowhey was a scholarship athlete of the Women's Field Hockey team at LaSalle University. After a career with Unisys Corporation, Ms. Cowhey attended Villanova Law School where she received her J.D. in 1992.

Admitted to Practice:

- Pennsylvania
- New Jersey

Practice Areas:

- Medical Malpractice Defense
- Legal Malpractice Defense
- General Liability Defense

Professional and Community Organizations:

- Pennsylvania Bar Association